Class History

We, the class of 1954, made our first appearance at Gold Sand High School in September, 1942, with an enrollment of fifty-five. Some of us were excited while others cried and still others were homesick. Although shy and frightened at first, we soon became adapted to school life through our teachers, Miss Eva and Miss Hodge.

The years passed quickly and we were sorry to lose some of our pupils but in the fourth grade we were happy to welcome new pupils from Wood. In the seventh grade, Mrs. Roy Gupton, our teacher, took the class on a tour to Raleigh, N. C. We enjoyed our trip. By the time we reached the eighth grade, we had made much progress but still had much to learn.

In 1950, we finally entered the ninth grade. Feeling very proud, we began to learn the high school routine. During that year we entertained our mothers at a Mother-Daughter Banquet.

During the Sophomore year, we lost several of our classmates but otherwise we made quite a bit of progress. Again we entertained our mothers at a Banquet.

As we entered the Junior year, we began to feel "grown-up." Many things happened during that year. We ordered our class rings in November and received them in February. We entertained the Seniors at a Junior-Senior Banquet in February. "Auntie Goes To College," our first play, was presented in May under the direction of Miss Harper.

In the year 1953, we became dignified Seniors. The high lights of this year will be the publishing of the annual, GOLDEN MEMORIES, the presentation of the Senior Play, "No Bride For The Groom," and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

As the nearness of graduation approaches, we realize that we have just begun to climb the ladder toward a higher education. Sadness fills our hearts as we think of the many things we could have done. We realize that we must prepare ourselves to meet the challenges that will face us from day to day. We offer thanks to our principal, Mr. Stephens, our teachers, and our parents, who have made our education possible. We will miss them when we leave dear old Gold Sand and they will always remain in our hearts.

Class Poem

Friends, teachers, classmates, we must soon be on our way,
For us the gate is open for a bigger, brighter, day.

Many a day we've sat and worried over some strangely,
puzzling text,
Wondering what our teachers could bring forth to ask us next.

All around the grounds we've wandered, talking over all we heard,
Thinking thoughts too deep for utterance, never spreading a single word.

Whatsoever life we lead, a fond farewell to Gold Sand
we say,
And to our principal and teachers, never more to point
our way.

Our love will remain for our dear school and every friend that we know,
Let's take each hand and whisper, "Good-Bye, classmates," as we go.

Poet Barbara Hudson

Class Prophecy

As I sit in my chair before a cheerful fire, my mind wanders back to my classmates of 1954. It has been ten long years since we left Dear Old Gold Sand. During these years I have lost track of many of my classmates, but now many happy memories come back to me for the wonderful times we had together. Soon I fell asleep and was dreaming about the days spent at Gold Sand.

Swannie Jones is a secretary for her husband, who is president of Hudson-Belk in Raleigh.

Barbara Hudson is happily married and is living in Louisburg.

Stuart Gupton is now the owner of three of the largest saw mills in North Carolina.

Marvin Pernell is one of the best players the Boston Red Sox have.

After graduating from Atlantic Christian College, Dozia Coley is a secretary in Tennessee.

Francis Gupton has just recently been elected president of the Greyhound Bus Company.

James Leonard is now a professor at State College.

After finishing school at Bob Jones University, Joyce Steed went to Africa as a Missionary.

Donald Gupton has a new job working in the ship yard at Norfolk.

Ethel Gupton is enjoying life as usual with the two million left to her by a rich uncle.

Clyde Pernell is now a major in the Army.

After graduating from Eastern Carolina Teachers College, Frances Burnette is teaching in Winston Salem, North Carolina.

Gerald Eury joined the Navy and is making a career of it.

Harold Ricks is overseeing his father's farm.

Elaine Harper, who attended a business school in Boston, Mass., is a stenographer.

Clyde Gupton is the owner of several oil wells in Texas.

Roy Ayscue is making a career of hunting and fishing.

Rachel Tharrington, after marrying, is a secretary for a millionaire in Florida.

Ronald Taylor, after completing a course in Architectural Engineering, is working in New York City.

J. H. Gupton has his own T. V. Show in New York City.

After graduating from State College, George Parrish is a Civil Engineer in Tennessee.

After graduating from school, Glenn Murphy decided to become a stock farmer.

I was awakened by the ringing of the telephone. Little did I realize I had been asleep for three hours. I had to hurry to bed and get enough sleep to be able to go to the hospital. After finishing my training at Park View Hospital in Rocky Mount, I, Faye Hunt, moved to Baltimore, Md. where I am a nurse at Johns Hopkins. That day my mind wandered back to the wonderful dream that I had and I knew I would never forget my classmates of 1954.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Gold Sand, being of sound mind and body, and realizing that our deeds here are finished, do declare this our last will and testament.

To Gold Sand School, we leave a group of students who may someday come up to the high standards we set.

To the teachers, we leave the memory of the class of '54.

To Mr. Stephens, we leave some more girls for him to tease.

To Mrs. Parrish, we leave our Chemistry books hoping the oncoming class will learn more than we did.

To Mrs. Murphy, we leave the title of being a good basketball coach.

To Mr. Marshall, we leave the "future farmers" so that our country will continue to be a prosperous nation.

To Miss Harper, we leave all our love forever.

Elaine Harper wills her nice manners to Lemuel Murphy.

Dozia Coley wills her loyalty to her friends to Mary Jo Joyner.

Glenn Murphy wills his good times at Gold Sand to Grace Kennedy.

Harold Ricks wills his quiet ways to Stanley Hunt.

Roy Ayscue wills his devotion to his studies to Joseph Harris.

James Leonard wills his height to Julian Allen.

Rachel Tharrington wills her winning smile to Mary Ann Brewer.

Barbara Ann Hudson wills her athletic ability to Tommie Tharrington.

Clyde Pernell wills his ability to get out of work to Floyd Burnette.

Faye Hunt wills her Geometry book to Bruce Ayscue.

Francis Gupton wills his love to Shirley Jeffreys.

Swannie Jones wills her studious ability to Perry Read.

Gerald Eury wills his courtesy to Harold Tharrington.

Stuart Gupton wills his English book to Thomas Perdue.

Frances Burnette wills her pleasant memories of Gold Sand to Carl Shearin.

Ethel Gupton wills her talkative ways to O. J. Gupton.

George Parrish and Ronald Taylor will their love for basketball to Ronnie Tharrington.

Clyde Gupton wills his teasing ways to Shirley Pernell.

Marvin Pernell wills his ability to play baseball to Archie Burnette.

J. H. Gupton wills his nice personality to Curtis Harris.

Donald Gupton wills his nice ways toward the girls to Jimmy Gilliam.

And I, Joyce Steed, leave to Ralph Leonard, my artistic ability.

Testator,
Joyce Steed
